20 Important Christians You Should Follow on Social Media

Meg Bucher

Crosswalk.com Contributing Writer

2. Pastor Steven Furtick

Elevation Church has established its presence as a relevant influence without a generational gap. Pastor Steven, though clearly aware of his imperfections, doesn't let them stop his audacious chase after Christ. God calls us to be a part of our local churches, but this has the power to reach out of our iPhones and influence what we are doing in regard to our own ministries in our own churches. It's not just his sermons, powerful and soul shifting as they are, but the platform that the church as a whole provides to bring others up in the faith as pastors, worship leaders, youth leaders ... and putting them on stage to bear witness to their stories. With every new layer this church pulls back, Jesus can be seen even more.

“We’re not waiting on the proof of God, we are proof of God” (Pastor Steven Furtick).
